[Podfic] Tales From the House of the Moon

by taikodragon (hana_ginkawa)

Summary

Kagome, now in college, discovers the tale of Sesshoumaru and Rin. Grief can be a prison, but the bonds of love are not easily broken. What is the truth behind fairytales?

Notes

This is a work of love for me so I will post when I can, but I hope to keep a weekly posting schedule until I complete this massively gorgeous piece of fanwork. Tags and archive warnings will be updated as they apply to each uploaded chapter.

There is a fanfic that I hold above all others in each of the fandoms I still currently inhabit and for Inuyasha, this was the one for me. And still is. I may not be active in the Inuyasha fandom anymore, but I still read this fanfic and one other because they were crafted with such care by their respective authors.

Be aware that the posted fanfiction for this is 326,106 words so it will not be a quickly completed series. By the end, I will have taught myself how to do a podbook so I will post one at the end when it is finished. Come on this road with me and discover the brilliance of Resmiranda's writings.

Much gratitude to Resmiranda (who isn't the same Resmiranda as the one here on Ao3) who gave me permission to podfic.
Please go to the original fic on Fanfiction.net or Mediaminer and leave comments and favorites there for her.

I'll be happy to add credit with links to wherever they are now.

Added the warning about major character death because there is mention of it in this chapter and the story behind it is coming up soon. If there are any warnings or tags that you believe should be noted, please comment and let me know. Thanks!

There is mention of one major series character death and graphic description of another. Be prepared. Please see tags for further possible warnings.

Note on .mp3 format: I have dropped the intro and the author's note from the files for downloading because once you have all chapters in a playlist, it should flow better. The streaming versions still retain that and if you would prefer to have the author's note version, I have also included a download link for that as well.

Some updating on formatting: I'm dropping the author's note from all audio files. Less for me to edit, in what is a massive amount of text already. If you want to read it, go to the original fic.

Chapter Summary

"Because... you know, they say it makes you stronger to lose someone. But I don't know. It seems to hurt just as much each time."

Chapter Notes

I have had a cold for like the last month, and no motivation for longer, but I've come out to my mother as a podficcer and I feel tons better. I will be attempting a set schedule again and will try to upload a new chapter each Sunday unless I have more than one finished, then I cannot help myself and will likely post what I have because I AM WEAK.

As always, gratitude to Resmiranda (who isn't the same Resmiranda as the one here on Ao3) who gave me permission to podfic.

Please go to the original fic on Fanfiction.net or Mediaminer and leave comments and favorites there for her. Feel free to leave comments for me and my performance as well if you want, I relish each and every one.

Chapter Summary

Death and destruction.

"The worst feeling in the world is the homesickness that comes over a man occasionally when he is at home." -- Ed Howe

Chapter Notes

Welcome to the end of Part 1! There are, if memory serves me right, 4 total arcs in this series.

This chapter gets a bit violent folks. I believe I've added the necessary tags, so be warned. Lots of Sesshoumaru doing his thing in real time yo. Please let me know if I need to add any additional tags.

Note: I was trying to keep fanart with their respective place in the story but there's not a lot for some sections and an overload of some for other parts so forgive me for placing them out of order. Thank you!
