Through the Looking Glass & What Arthur Found There (Artwork)

by StarshipInk

Summary

Artwork for Merlin Wonderland crossover! Merlin Reverse Big Bang

Notes

A giant thank you to my lovely writer Versaphile, who not only was a pinch hitter but an excellent one, speedy to get her ideas onto paper and even better at executing them. Her fic sounds like something Lewis Carroll himself might have written. :) Also, much love and gratitude goes out to one of my favorite merlin artists, Whimsycatcher, who gave me several helpful tips when I was struggling to convert my grayscale painting to color.

The companion fic to this artwork can be seen here.
